Cookie Policy

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files containing a string of characters that can be placed on your computer or mobile device that uniquely identify your browser or device. Cookies allow a site or services to know if your computer or device has visited that site or service before. Cookies can then be used to help understand how the site or service is being used, help you navigate between pages efficiently, help remember your preferences, and generally improve your browsing experience. Cookies can also help ensure marketing you see online is more relevant to you and your interests.

What types of cookies does Gender Identity South West use?

There are generally four categories of cookies: "Essential," "Performance," "Functionality," and "Targeting." Gender Identity South West uses essential cookies only. Essential Cookies enable you to move around the website and use its features safely and securely. See section below for specific cookies used by the website hosted by Wix.com.

How long will cookies stay on my device?

The length of time a cookie will stay on your computer or mobile device depends on whether it is a "persistent" or "session" cookie. Session cookies will only stay on your device until you stop browsing. Persistent cookies stay on your computer or mobile device until they expire or are deleted.

How can I manage, opt out and delete cookies from my device?
